

KENNEDY POINT

Syrah 2007

The world's most prestigious independent wine competition, the International Wine Challenge has announced the results of the 2009 trophy awards. This year there were 9,500 entries (362 New Zealand entries) with wineries from all over the world sending more than 40,000 bottles of wine. An incredible organizational challenge to log, categorize and code by grape variety, style, country and region!

Kennedy point was awarded a gold medal for its 2007 syrah and the final competition revealed even more exciting news for the vineyard. In the final round of the challenge, all gold medals are again blind tasted with the best of the best considered for a trophy. Kennedy point was awarded this Trophy for the following award categories:

International Syrah Trophy
New Zealand Syrah Trophy
New Zealand Red Wine Trophy
Auckland Syrah Trophy

Web site links for more information

www.internationalwinechallenge.com/trophies.aspx

www.kennedypointvineyard.com